

NO ONE EXPERIENCING A CRISIS SHOULD GO THROUGH IT ALONE.

FrontLine supports those experiencing homelessness, behavioral health crises, or violence in their homes or communities.

Our services are sensitive to the trauma experienced by these individuals and families.

We provide services to those in crisis through phone, online chat, or outreach.

OUR MISSION

Reaching out. Resolving crisis.

ENDING HOMELESSNESS

FrontLine Service provides outreach, emergency housing, behavioral health care, and supportive services for those who experience homelessness in Northeast Ohio. Through these services, we work to help individuals and families access housing, as well as the resources and skills to maintain that housing.

RESOLVING CRISIS

Available 24/7, FrontLine's crisis teams answer calls from those experiencing a behavioral health crisis, as well as from family and friends concerned about a loved one. The Adult Mobile Crisis and Child Response Teams provide support by phone, through chat, and when needed, through on-scene response.

OVERCOMING TRAUMA

FrontLine provides 24/7 support to children and families who have experienced or witnessed abuse, suicide, homicide, or the sudden loss of a loved one. We provide immediate practical and therapeutic support in families' homes to reduce the harmful effects of trauma.
